{The Viceroy in Bali}

In need of some inspiration for your honeymoon? If so, I suggest you check out the recently launched Honeymoon program designed by the Small Luxury Hotels of the World. The program features a collection of different trips packaged together, so all of the planning is essentially done for you. Another bonus is that many of the SLH properties are included, so you can design a multi-city or country packaged honeymoon (particularly useful if you're Europe bound!). Imagine taking a road trip through Italy in a convertible and then spending the night in a rustic farmhouse at Case Del Borgo in Tuscany. Or hiding away at the secluded

Viceroy Bali tucked away in the Lembah Valley, and then watching the sunrise at a volcano. Or even enjoying a spa treatment in the world's first underwater spa in the Maldives. The possibilities for that dream trip of a lifetime are endless! Below are some pictures of a small selection of hotels that are part of the SLH collection. You can book online at slh.com or even through their new free iPhone app!
