

GUESTS CAN ENJOY THIS FESTIVE SEASON “AT HOME IN BAROS”

As we enter the last few months of 2021, it's the perfect time for guests to start planning their December holidays, and those who decide to join us at Baros are in for several festive treats. From new excursions and unparalleled culinary highlights to the freedom and space to feel “At Home in Baros”, this is sure to be a December to remember.

What's more, over and above the carefully curated festive season programme, guests will be invited to celebrate Baros's 48th anniversary on the 26th of December 2021. As part of this extra-special sun-kissed festive season at “the Icon of the Maldives”, guests will be invited to embrace anything from botanical garden explorations, underwater adventures and unique spa journeys to exclusive culinary events.

For guests eager to discover the underwater world, the Dive and Marine centre has a plethora of options. Guests can explore the vibrant house reef day or night, embrace eco-conscious coral activities or travel to a nearby site for a dive unlike any other. Those looking for a serious dose of R&R can head to the sensational Serenity Spa at Baros Maldives where they can tailor-make their own spa journey for their stay over the festive season. Guests relish relaxing, grounding activities that range from sunrise yoga and cleansing rituals to nourishing treatments and a festive season spoil.

Culinary aficionados can delight in the array of Cooking Classes on offer this December that span everything from Thai favourites and traditional Maldivian dishes to a Chocolatier Master Class. In these classes, the Baros culinary team will share their knowledge and secrets so that guests can travel back home with new flavours to share.

Other gourmet experiences that guests can look forward to including starlit wine and dine evenings enhanced by the smooth sounds of Jazz, delectable wine filled evenings and an unmissable event, our Seafood Market Galore. The culinary offerings this festive season are sure to delight the senses of even the most discerning Baros guests.

The festive programme will culminate in a memorable New Year's celebration, where guests will be pampered with a splendour of food and drinks throughout the evening. Guests will enjoy the New Year countdown and firework spectacle to welcome in what will hopefully be a spectacular 2022!

Prices start from XXX in a Deluxe Villa including Half Board. A Festive Season supplement of USD XXX and a minimum stay of XX nights are mandatory for bookings between 24th December 2021 and 1st January 2022.
